

General mixed Yule coalescent (GMYC) model used as a species delimitation. In red after each branch is a species recognized by the model. Singletons are recognized as entities in this model.