

TECHNOLOGY INFRASTRUCTURE

The procedure was carried out using a Windows 10 computer that had an Intel Core i7 processor clocked at 3.60 GHz, an Nvidia Tesla K80: 2496 CUDA cores, 16 GB RAM. Python 3.6 and the Keras API were used in the model's development for both training and construction.